

Jackie paving the way.

A man who could hit, catch, and throw. He was put to the test and did his best. He paved the way. Hey!

Born on January 31, 1919. He fought for the rights of every African American boy and girl. The first black major leaguer.

On April 15, 1947 he broke the color line of major league baseball.

He played for the Brooklyn Dodgers. He played infield but boy, could he field a ball.

“Baseball is like a poker game, nobody wants to quit when their losing, nobody wants you to quit while your ahead.” -Jackie Robinson one of the greatest baseball players EVER!